

Wisconsin's NO CALL list has done away with constant interruptions by unwanted telemarketers. They should have a right to call me only if they pay my phone bill. Since I pay for it, they should have no right to harass me or tie up my line by calling me. They have to pay for the right to harass me on TV because I only pay for the receiver and not the broadcast as I do with my phone line.